Cell Group Discussion Questions

1. What did Isaiah see in chapter 6 and how was it different from his natural reality? How does the relationship with the Lord help us to see things in different light? Have you experienced this?
2. What was the insight that Isaiah had as he was before the throne of God in chapter 6? What does it tell us about the work that God does in us when we walk with Him and seek Him?
3. What was so special about Isaiah's reply to God when the call came? How can we respond in a similar manner when the Lord shows us the need in His kingdom?
